Sun Java StorEdge Software & Suites Electronic Software Download 2005Q4 1.1 Read Me First

Sun Java StorEdge Software introduces a fundamental change in the way storage software is priced, licensed, delivered, and serviced. Through innovative subscription pricing, Sun Java StorEdge Software & Suites provide a complete storage software bundle for your data management needs. Sun support and consulting services are also included with your subscription.

For more information about Sun Java StorEdge Software and Suites, visit the Sun web site at:

`http://www.sun.com/storage/software/javastoredgesoftware/`

This Read Me First consists of the following sections:

- "Before You Begin" on page 2
- "Available Subscription Licenses and Install Options" on page 4
- "How to Get Help" on page 9

Electronic Software Downloads

Electronic software download is available for some, but not all, components of the Sun Java StorEdge Software and the four Sun Java StorEdge Suites:

- Sun Java StorEdge Consolidation Suite
- Sun Java StorEdge Continuity Suite
- Sun Java StorEdge Content Suite
- Sun Java StorEdge Compliance Suite

For more information about which components are available for download, see the relevant section in "Available Subscription Licenses and Install Options" on page 4.

For detailed information about the software that is part of the electronic software download packages, including operating system and platform support, contact your Sun Sales representative. Some compatibility restrictions may apply.

To download the software, go to:

`http://www.sun.com/storage/software/javastoredgesoftware/get.xml`

If you do not have access to the Internet and need a copy of the software, contact your Sun Sales representative. A media kit is also available for a nominal fee.

For more information about installation of the software components in the Sun Java StorEdge Software and each one of the suites, please refer to "Available Subscription Licenses and Install Options" on page 4.

Before You Begin

This section describes restrictions on use of the software. It also contains a list of the components of the Sun Java StorEdge Software that are not downloadable.

IMPORTANT: Subscription Licenses

YOU MAY NOT INSTALL OR USE THE SOFTWARE, UNLESS YOU HAVE FIRST PURCHASED A LICENSE TO DO SO. Your use of the software is governed by the Sun Software License Agreement and applicable Entitlement. Contact your Sun Sales representative for information about purchasing a license.

If you purchased a license for the Sun Java StorEdge Software, you are entitled to download and install all the software available as part of the bundle.
If you purchased a license for any of the suites, you are entitled to download and install only the software pertaining to the suite that you purchased.

For more information about which software components to install according to the licenses you purchased, see "Available Subscription Licenses and Install Options" on page 4.

Software Components That Are Not Downloadable

The following Sun Java StorEdge Software components are not downloadable due to restrictions for use:

- Sun StorEdge Enterprise Storage Manager Advanced Applications
- Veritas NetBackup Enterprise Server

The following Sun Java StorEdge Software components are also not downloadable. They are shipped with the specific system, array, or NAS appliance on which they reside:

- Sun StorEdge File Replicator software for the Sun StorEdge 5000 family of NAS appliances
- Sun StorEdge Compliance Archiving software for the Sun StorEdge 5310 NAS Appliance
- Sun StorEdge Data Snapshot software for the Sun StorEdge 6920 system

- Sun StorEdge Data Mirror software for the Sun StorEdge 6920 system
- Sun StorEdge Pool Manager software for the Sun StorEdge 6000 family of systems and arrays

Note – Please check the firmware level on your Sun StorEdge 6920 system using the instructions that came with your system. If a firmware upgrade is necessary, contact Sun Support as described in "How to Get Help" on page 9.

Note – Sun StorEdge Data Replicator software may not be installed on your system because it was not available at time of purchase. Contact your Sun Sales representative for information about the availability of the Sun StorEdge Data Replicator software.
Important: A site assessment is required before you can use the Sun StorEdge Data Replicator software for the Sun StorEdge 6920 system. For more information, contact your Sun Sales representative.

Available Subscription Licenses and Install Options

Read "Before You Begin" on page 2 to understand the restrictions for use of the software that is part of your download. The software that you can install and use depends on the subscription licenses that you purchased.

For detailed information about the individual software components that you can download, install, and use, go to the following sections:

- "Sun Java StorEdge Software" on page 4
- "Sun Java StorEdge Consolidation Suite" on page 6
- "Sun Java StorEdge Continuity Suite" on page 7
- "Sun Java StorEdge Content Suite" on page 8
- "Sun Java StorEdge Compliance Suite" on page 8

You can install and use the software according to the terms of the Sun Software License Agreement, which you are asked to review and approve prior to download, and of the Entitlement document, which you should have received separately as part of the license purchase.

If you have not received the Entitlement document within a week of the scheduled delivery date of the subscription license, contact your Sun Sales representative.
